Tri-County Young Life Leader

March 2013-May 2015

- As a Tri-County Young Life volunteer, I had the opportunity to invest time in high school students at Westside High School in Anderson, SC. My goal as a volunteer leader was to build relationships by spending time with students during school hours as well as outside of normal school hours. As a result, I was able to earn trust and develop long lasting relationships.

Patronato Cibao Rehabilitation Center

June-July 2014

- At the Patronato Cibao Rehabilitation Center in Santiago, Dominican Republic, I was an intern in the Neurology department. As an intern, I assisted physical therapists in whatever tasks I was needed.
- Facilitated exercises and treatment with the patients.

Clemson Public Health

Spring 2013

- As a student in Clemson's Public Health Program, I had opportunities to engage in the surrounding community.
- Implement health strategies such as a 5K for the community within the town of Pendleton, SC.
- "Walk to School Day" for Pendleton Elementary School
- Maximization of the health potential for other members in the community.

Mt. Pleasant Recreation Trip Camp

June 2011-2012

- As a camp counselor, I worked with 3 and 4 year olds. Counselors provided a safe environment where campers were able to have fun by engaging in various arts and crafts projects and activities throughout the day.

East Cooper Meals on Wheels

Summer 2010-Summer 2015

- As an East Cooper Meals on Wheels volunteer, I helped package meals for people in the East Cooper area who may have difficulty making their own meals, or may not have the funds to purchase their own food. In addition to packing meals, I also delivered meals to recipients on a weekly basis.

Babysitting
